COOLING + PACK FIT

No cooling stated

No cooling system is published for this book cabinet; plan shelf-stable publications only.

Refrigerant: not applicable to the published schedule.

Published watts are not daily energy use.

Only a supply voltage is published — no power rating or measured kWh/day. Estimate operating cost from the supplied unit rating plate.

Six photographed coil rows with a selection/control column and lower collection. Flexible publication lanes need agreed slot spacing; the five-tray layout of another model is not evidence here.

PUBLISHED CAPABILITY / SELECTED FITMENT

Digital at the front. Clear behind it.

Specify the customer experience and the fitted hardware separately. A published option is not a promise that every device is installed.

Customer experience

The page describes flexible slots for books, notebooks, magazines and newspapers with a photographed selection/control area. Agree supplied

A configurable system

An MDB/DEX interface is listed for the controller and a keypad/reader column is photographed. Confirm the fitted interface, devices and dispensing setup.
